ETHICAL INTELLIGENCE™: How Good People Make Great Things Happen

THURSDAY, September 27, 2012
BRUCE WEINSTEIN, Ph.D.

This lively, interactive presentation shows how to strengthen your business and personal relationships, make better decisions at work and home, promote positive word of mouth about your work, and ultimately feel better about yourself—all by applying five simple principles you already know.

"A CHAMPION'S PERSPECTIVE"

THURSDAY, October 25, 2012
Jay Wilkinson

Jay's father, Bud Wilkinson, was one of the greatest coaches in college football history. His son, Jay Wilkinson, was a standout football player at Duke University where he earned All-American honors. After graduating from Duke, Jay pursued a divinity degree and, later, after spending years in public service, he worked in an executive capacity with the financial services industry for 37 years.

Jay has authored two books, including the latest Dear Jay, Love Dad: Bud Wilkinson's Letters to His Son, released January, 2012. His presentation to OK Ethics will center on principals such as values, attitude, preparation, perseverance, character, selflessness and faith. All tools that will help individuals weather storms of ethical conflicts.
