A panel of IT experts will discuss the current trends and ethical issues surrounding technology and how this impacts today's workplace. Trending IT issues of cybersecurity, data privacy, working from home, social media@work and many other issues will be discussed.

AGENDA

• Employee Investigations

What processes do we utilize to ensure privacy is maintained when our cybersecurity staff participates in employee investigations?

• Background Checks

Does your company participate in background checks related to cybersecurity staff, and if so, how do you address the dilemma of privacy and ethics associated with such a practice?

• Monitoring

How do you 'watch the watchers' to ensure those with specialized/elevated privileges are not abusing their access or not behaving ethically?

• Profiling and Biases

- Artificial Intelligence (AI)
- Machine Learning (ML)
- Robotic Process Automation (RPA)

In our new world of Artificial Intelligence, Machine Learning & Robotic Process Automation, how does your organization protect against profiling and biases?

• Cybersecurity and ESG

How does Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) coincide with cybersecurity ethical discussions?

GENERAL PROGRAM DISCLAIMERS:

LEGAL: Members of the Oklahoma Business Ethics Consortium frequently share information concerning various issues and development that may have legal implications. The discussions, commentary, and handouts at Consortium meetings or presentations to other organizations are for general informational purposes only. They cover only some aspects of the subject topic, and do not constitute a complete legal analysis to the topic or how it might apply to any particular set of facts. Before taking any action based on information presented during an OK Ethics event, participants are encouraged to consult a qualified attorney.

CPE's: This program is recommended for 1 CPE in Ethics at the basic level.

If attending in person, make sure to sign up for CPE when you arrive and pick up your certificate when the program is concluded. Certificates for virtual attendees will be emailed in the week following the program. Please note you must be present for the duration of the program to receive credit. Virtual attendees are encouraged to participate in the chat.

PHOTOGRAPHY: Occasionally photos of the event are made, and these may be posted on the OK Ethics website or Facebook page. By attending the program, participants tacitly understand and agree to this process. If preferences are otherwise, please notify us at mary@okethics.com or call (918) 604-3057 and we will be happy to comply with your wishes.

PRESENTATION STANDARDS: The observations and comments of presenters at OK Ethics meetings and networking are the views and opinions of the presenter and do not constitute the opinion or policy of OK Ethics or any of its members. Presenters are respectfully requested to honor OK Ethics Guiding Principles as well as avoid profanity, preaching, politics, put-downs, and self-promotion during their lectures. To ensure accountability, participants are invited to evaluate each program according to these and other standards.
